18 NOTICE AND ORDER
TO DEFENDANTS RE:
IMPROPER EMAILS

19 Defendants, or some of them, have sent emails to this Court. These emails are not a
20 proper way to communicate with this Court and do not qualify as a proper appearance before
21 this Court. Plaintiffs have filed a motion for default judgment for $13.5 million dollars and the 22 hearing will be held tomorrow, June 20, 2012. Defendants would be well-advised to make an 23 appearance at or before the hearing. If such an appearance is made by defendants through 24 counsel, this Court would consider granting an extension for a short period of time for 25 defendants to move to set aside plaintiffs' motion for default judgment. If defendants do not 26 make such an appearance through counsel, then it is probable that default judgment will be
27 entered in favor of plaintiffs. The defendants are advised not to engage in further email
28

1 communication with this Court. PLAINTIFFS SHALL IMMEDIATELY SERVE THIS ORDER UPON
2 DEFENDANTS.
